Weekly Update

“If plan ‘A’ didn’t work, the alphabet has 25 other letters. Stay cool!”

Things are really taking off as we approach the third week of this school year! Our Fall Scholastic Book Fair began on Friday. A special thanks to the parent volunteers that helped with set-up and sales. There is still space to sign-up to volunteer at the book fair (parents and grandparents are welcome). You can visit the school’s website or call the school to sign up.

Please join us at Open House on Wednesday, September 23, 2015 from 5:30-7:00 p.m. We will begin in the Auditorium where I will present information on the current state of the school including current data and financial information. Immediately following my presentation, parents will have the opportunity to meet classroom teachers and learn more about the curriculum. If you are able, please also plan to attend the first LPCG meeting of the year. The meeting will be at 4:30 p.m. in the Lenart Library. All Lenart parents are members of LPCG and invited to attend.

We will continue NWEA testing this week. Please refer to the attached schedule for your child’s testing dates.

This year, we will continue our green campaign by going completely paperless. To ensure that we have an email address for all parents and to update our school directory, please complete a brief parent information survey.
